

EXPLANATION

- |                                                                      |                                                                                   |                                                           |                                                                                     |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Quaternary alluvium                                                  |   | Mesozoic volcanic and sedimentary rocks                   |  |
| Pliocene - Pleistocene basalt-andesite (right) and sedimentary rocks |  | Later Precambrian and Paleozoic sedimentary rocks         |  |
| Tertiary volcanic rocks                                              |  | Later Precambrian Pahrump Group, mostly sedimentary rocks |  |
| Tertiary sedimentary rocks                                           |  | Earlier Precambrian metamorphic and igneous rocks         |  |
| Mesozoic - Tertiary granitic rocks                                   |  |                                                           |                                                                                     |
| Mesozoic (?) diorite                                                 |  |                                                           |                                                                                     |

Compiled by Lauren A. Wright
 Pennsylvania State University
 University Park, Pennsylvania 16802
 Cartography by Robert J. Texter.

0 200 Miles

0 5 10 20 30 Miles